Economic Program

The Federation of American Hospitals endorses and pledges its support for the basic economic policy announced by President Reagan on February 18th -- substantial reductions in federal spending, tax incentives for business and individual tax rate reductions, and regulatory reform.

With respect to health policy, we pledge our cooperation to the President and to the Secretary of H.H.S. in finding mutually acceptable areas to achieve a reduction in federal expenditures together with a reduction in the regulatory burden on hospitals. Where we find it inconsistent with basic FAH policy to support a specific budget reduction proposal, we pledge to offer constructive suggestions for amending the proposal or substitute proposals which would achieve at least the same federal budget saving.

FAH welcomes the announced support of the Secretary of H.H.S. for the health industry's Voluntary Effort (VE) to restrain increases in health expenditures and we pledge our cooperation in continuing and strengthening the Voluntary Effort.

FAH believes that adoption of the President's economic policy can result in a reduction of general inflation while increasing productivity and economic growth, thereby having a significant restraining effect on increases in the cost of delivering quality health care to all Americans.

STATEMENT OF ENDORSEMENT

U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

Board of Directors and General Membership

April 16, 1981

The U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce endorses and pledges its support for the basic economic policy announced by President Ronald Reagan on February 18, 1981; that is, to substantially reduce federal spending, provide tax incentives for business and individual tax rate reductions, and relief from costly and unnecessary regulations.

The U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce pledges its cooperation to the President and to his Administration, in finding mutually acceptable areas to achieve a reduction in the regulatory burden on the large and small businesses of this country.

The U.S. Hispanic Chamber of Commerce welcomes the appointments of Hispanics to significant positions in the government. Note is especially taken of the appointment of Mr. Mike Cardenas as SBA Administrator and of Mr. Victor Rivera as MBDA Administrator. We pledge our cooperation and support in their execution of their duties and responsibilities.

The USHCC supported President Reagan in his campaign last fall because we were convinced that new leadership was needed to help business and the American people emerge from the economic confusion of recent years. We now renew our support by endorsing the economic program of the President.
